

LEGACY GUIDE

Who are your deserving?

Leaving a gift in your will is a profound way to extend your compassion and faith, ensuring that your legacy continues to touch lives in Eastern Europe. At Mission Without Borders, we are dedicated to sharing Christ's love and providing practical assistance to those who feel forgotten.

Investing in Futures

By including a gift in your will, you can help us reach more people for Christ in Eastern Europe. Your generosity will enable us to restore dignity, promote self-sufficiency, and demonstrate God's immense love to those in need. We hope you will consider leaving a lasting gift to Mission Without Borders.

Our Promise to You

We understand that making decisions about your future is personal and private. We promise never to pressure you to disclose your intentions, and we recognize that your family and loved ones come first. Any gifts you leave will be handled respectfully and used appropriately to maximize their impact. We will always respect your decision and your right to change your mind about leaving a gift to Mission Without Borders.

Choosing the Deserving

Determining who is deserving of your legacy is a thoughtful process. While your nearest and dearest come first, you may also consider organizations you admire or have been involved with. It's important to ensure that your bequest goes to the right people, is efficiently administered, and aligns with your values.

When Care Crosses Life's Borders

Mission Without Borders (MWB) is an international, non-profit, Christian organization helping the poorest of the poor in Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Moldova, Romania, and Ukraine. We provide food to prevent starvation, clothing for protection, medical help that often saves lives, and fuel to fend off freezing winters. We rescue children, offer education and career opportunities, and spread the Word of God, giving spiritual strength to those in need.

Our Ethics

MWB is known for its high standards of ethics, efficient administration, and meticulous accounting, audited independently. Our Annual Report is available upon request. All gifts are acknowledged, and we keep in touch with our supporters through regular correspondence.

Our Background

At the height of anti-religious, communist fervour in Eastern Europe, Underground Evangelism was born, keeping the flame of Christian belief alive. Our name later changed to Mission Without Borders. When communism fell, the people were left in extreme poverty and unemployment. These hardships continue, and thousands of children and families rely on MWB's support to survive.

A Deserving Cause

By making Mission Without Borders one of your beneficiaries, you can specify that the funds be used where most needed or select one of our specialized programs to support. Your support will help create a better future for others and serve as a living tribute to your life and values.

When There's a Will, You Choose the Way

Not everyone is aware of the options and requirements when making a will. Consult an Estate Attorneys or your bank to draw up a will and update it when circumstances change. Your bequest can take various forms, such as a residual amount, a specified percentage of your estate, a fixed sum of money, specified assets, or a life policy with Mission Without Borders specified as the beneficiary. Ensure the full names of your beneficiaries are stated, such as Mission Without Borders SA, and keep your will in a safe and secure place.

By including Mission Without Borders in your will, you ensure that your legacy of faith and compassion continues to transform lives in Eastern Europe.

THANK YOU
